

I wanted to make my oposition to the Broad Band over Power Line and the Power Line Communication proposal. I am an Amateur Radio Operator. My concern is with the generation of additional RF noise. It seems to me that if this is implemented the result would be the creation of VERY large antenna. I don't think this is good idea at all and I am opposed to this.